Guests of The United States Army Field Band:

On behalf of the United States Army, I welcome you to this spring performance by The United States Army Field Band – America's premier touring musical organization. As the Field Band sets out on their Spring 2024 National Outreach Tour, know that these talented men and women have embraced the endless possibilities of service to our Army with passion and purpose. Their musical excellence, electrifying performances, and patriotic spirit exemplify the American Soldier and America's Veterans, who chose selflessly to serve in the United States Army and find their own pathways to success. I am confident their performance will both inspire and entertain you.

The Soldiers performing today represent the Total Army Force – those deployed and forward stationed – committed around the world to defend our Nation and its interests. The United States Army has brought out the best in those who serve – being all they can be, from generation to generation and remaining the world's premier combat force. Thank you for your support of the United States Army and I hope you enjoy this performance.

Sincerely,

Trevor J. Bredekamp
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding General,
Military District of Washington
